Message of Invitation

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is an honour to have the opportunity to host the CME organised by the Departments of Otolaryngology and Dentistry to be held at AIIMS Rishikesh on 6th November, 2016.

The holy town of Rishikesh is around 230 km northeast of Delhi, 24 km north of Haridwar and 43km south of the capital city of Dehradun, in close proximity of Dehradun's Jolly Grant airport (about 15 km). Rishikesh is spread on the bank of the river Ganges, on the foothills of the Himalayas and is surrounded by hills on all three sides. It is rightly called the Yoga Capital of the World and is a place of serenity, tranquility and is the land where people come in the quest of spirituality.

We hope that the scientific deliberations and exchange of views would help the participants to enrich their knowledge further.

We look forward to welcome you to DevBhoomi- The Land Of Gods and hope that you have an enriching and fulfilling experience with us.

With Warm Regards,

Dr. Saurabh Varshney
